#AllezDemocracy on Europeana

#AllezDemocracy has now been running for six months, with growing success of audience – we are midway through, and Europeana.eu dedicated a blog post to the exhibition, available here

NEW FEATURED DOCUMENT

Our Featured Documents series reprises with “The Treaty of Brest-Litovsk”, dedicated to the negotiations for peace between Russia and the Central Powers, following the October Revolution. In the 100th year anniversary, these records are a powerful testimony of the complexity of the transitions triggered by the First World World. This set of Feature Documents also celebrates the new online portal dedicated to the Weimar Republic (see the News section). Click on the documents to access the exhibition

COMING UP

ICARUS #21 - Taking Cultural Heritage Outside the Archives Helsinki, Finland – 4/6 June 2018

The ICARUS Meeting #21 will take place at the Kansallisarkisto, National Archives of Finland, with the title (and slogan) "Taking Cultural Heritage Outside the Archives." In times of rapid technological developments, archives must keep up with the digital age and, even more importantly, ensure a participatory outreach. This meeting will give insight into a variety of topics dealing with how to better connect with communities through the opportunities offered by digital technologies. Programme and registration available here.

The Della Corgna: from Guido to Fulvio II (XIII-XVI cent.) Online

The online exhibition "The Della Corgna: from Guido to Fulvio II (XIII-XVI cent.)" is available here. The exhibition is organised by the Archivio di Stato di Perugia, Perugia State Archives (Italy), and it follows research conducted since 2015 on the della Corgna family, one of the most prestigious and influential families in early modern Perugia.

Theatre in Lazio, 1798-1870 Online

The Archivio di Stato di Roma, Italian State Archives, have organised the online exhibition titled "Theatre in Lazio, 1798-1870": a collection of archival documents that reconstructs the history of the spaces, buildings and activities in the cities of Frosinone, Gaeta, and other cities in the Lazio region.
