FROM APEF

#ALLEZDEMOCRACY ENDS

After 10 months of successes,
#AllezDemocracy is about to end – but keep following us on the last days, full of surprises and original documents on the democratisation of Europe!

#AllezDemocracy started from the 12th century, and will stop at the 1990s – however, the ideas and ideals of democracy go well beyond it, and the journey continues. We hope that the exhibition has contributed to the debate, and to remember the sacrifices made by many for the ideal of democracy.

The full list of documents is available on the APEF website, on our newly-launched Pinterest channel (see below), and of course on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram, following the hashtag #AllezDemocracy

ARCHIVES PORTAL EUROPE ON PINTEREST

Archives Portal Europe is now available on Pinterest – to collect, repost, and disseminate all documents that are published in the Featured Documents and exhibitions. The first board, dedicated to #AllezDemocracy, is already available online – please share!

COMING UP

Decipher, Research, Participate! The St. Emmeram Monastery in Regensburg and its digital tradition

München (Germany), 5 October 2018

You are invited to the roundtable organised by the Bayerisches Staatsarchiv, Bavarian State Archives, to present the complete digitised collection of charters of the monastery of St. Emmeram - a collection of 5000 charters dated between 794 to 1800, soon to be available online. By taking the example of this corpus of source material, the event intends to bring together research questions and technical exploitation models.

The digitisation process was completed within the framework of the EU project "Co:op - Community as opportunity." For more information and registration, please visit the Co:op website.

KULTURHACKATHON 2018 - Open Up your Data and Create!

Sankt Pölten (Austria), 20-22 September 2018

The second Austrian Kulturhackathon is coming up in Sankt Pölten, with the aim to contribute to make cultural heritage accessible, through workshops, presentations, and discussions about how to design a successful open data strategy. Registration is required; more information (in German) is available here

ARCHIVAL STUDIES, SOURCE STUDIES – TREND AND CHALLENGES

Tbilisi (Georgia), 20-22 September 2018

The 3rd international conference "Archival Studies, Source Studies – Trend and Challenges" will take place at the საქართველოს ეროვნული არქივი/National Archives of Georgia, to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the independence of country. The thematic emphasis is on 1918-21 Georgia and South Caucasus, the period preceding the declaration of independence of Georgia and the proclamation of the First Democratic Republic. The conference will be a moment for scholars and archivists to reflect on network and archives in the digital age.

NEWS FROM THE ARCHIVES

THE ANCESTORS' PORTAL NOW MULTILINGUAL

The Ancestors' Portal ("Portale degli Antenati"), is the largest resource for genealogy research and family histories in Italy. Active since 2012, it now allows multilingual research also in English, Spanish, and Portuguese. If you speak any of these languages, as well as Italian of course, you can find your Italian ancestors here.

FROM THE UK NATIONAL ARCHIVES – ARCHIVES UNLOCKED

Our new Associate The National Archives UK has published its 2018/19 vision and strategy for open archives in the digital era. Issues such as digitisation, digital capacity, openness, and enrichment are discussed and laid out in a report that can serve as inspiration and guidelines to any archive in the world. The report is freely available for download here
